

Adams State University Curriculum Review Committee
Meeting Minutes for 31 January 2014
12-1 PM in McDaniel Hall, Room 204

Attendees: Anicia Alvarez, Tim Armstrong, Zena Buser, Jeff Elison, Claire van der Plas, Mary Walsh, Tony Weathers.

Absent: Mari Centeno.

1. The meeting was called to order at 12:03 PM.
2. In Fall 2013, a tenure-track position was moved from Business to Chemistry, Computer Science, and Mathematics (CCSM), with the intent of housing all “information technology” coursework under the same umbrella as computer science. This was done with the understanding that CCSM would develop a plan toward building the computer science and information technology programs. To that end, the department reviewed the curricular recommendations of the Association of Computing Machinery – the international professional organization for both computer science and information technology. This review resulted in major revisions to the existing computer science program as well as the addition of a new major and minor in information technology. All of the changes listed below were approved.
3. CSCI-IT Changes
 - a. Course Deletions: CSCI 150, CSCI 170, CSCI 200, CSCI 207, CSCI 208, CSCI 209, CSCI 210, CSCI 215, CSCI 216, CSCI 245, CSCI 275, CSCI 301, CSCI 302, CSCI 308, CSCI 315, CSCI 316, CSCI 320, CSCI 330, CSCI 345, CSCI 360, CSCI 410, CSCI 445.
 - b. Course Additions. Many of the following additions are really just renumberings of courses deleted above.
 - i. CSCI 101 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 150.
 - ii. CSCI 104 – Added in response to ACM guidelines.
 - iii. CSCI 202 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 210.
 - iv. CSCI 205, CSCI 206 – These two courses now house the content previously located in CSCI 207, CSCI 208, and CSCI 209.
 - v. CSCI 224 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 200, the content of the course was updated based on ACM guidelines.
 - vi. CSCI 235, CSCI 307, CSCI 316, and CSCI 317 – Added in response to ACM guidelines.
 - vii. CSCI 328 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 330, the content of the course was updated based on ACM guidelines.
 - viii. CSCI 341 – Added in response to ACM guidelines.
 - ix. CSCI 343 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 360.
 - x. CSCI 347, CSCI 348 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 301 and CSCI 302.
 - xi. CSCI 385 – Effectively a renumbering of CSCI 315.

xii. CSCI 418 – Added in response to ACM guidelines.

4. The meeting was adjourned at 1:00 PM with review of these documents to continue at the February 7, 2014, meeting.