

Vacancy Announcement

Assistant Professor in Political Science
Tenure Track: Position # FA 0701

Starting Date: August 16, 2015

Position Description

American Political Science Generalist: Tenure track, Assistant Professor. Course load 4/4. 3 preparations. The successful candidate must teach a general studies course in World Civilization as well as American Government, Constitutional Law, Legislative Process, American Political Thought, and other courses in candidate's specialty.

Qualifications

Political Science Ph. D. in hand by time of appointment. ABD considered. Teaching competencies in World Civilization, United States Government, Constitutional Law, Legislative Process, American Political Thought, and courses in candidate's area of competency. Ability to perform the position description above. Successful college-level teaching experience preferred and successful experience working with populations that are under-represented in higher education required.

Rank/Salary

Appointment will be made at the assistant professor entry level. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Adams State University provides an attractive benefits package.

Applications

Completed applications must include the following and must be submitted electronically:

1. Letter of application addressing the candidate's interest in and qualifications for this position.
2. Curriculum vitae and transcripts (copies accepted).
3. Names, addresses (including emails), and telephone numbers of four references who can address the candidate's qualifications for this position.

Send applications to ercrowth@adams.edu

Dr. Edward R. Crowther, Chair
Department of History, Anthropology, Philosophy, Political Science, & Spanish
Adams State University
Alamosa, CO 81101

All applications will be acknowledged. Review of completed applications will begin March 1, 2015. Applications received or completed after that date may not receive full consideration.

An Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer

Adams State College is particularly interested in applications from members of protected classes.

*In compliance with the Immigration and Control Act of 1986,
Adams State College employees must provide proof of identity and eligibility to work in the United States before an offer of employment can be made final.*