NAPOLEON 1799-1815

• I. Introduction
• II. Napoleon in Power
  – A. The Consulate (1799-1804)
    • 1. The Concordat of 1801
    • 2. 1802 Plebiscite--Napoleon becomes First Consul
    • 3. 1804 Napoleon crowns himself Emperor of the French
General Bonaparte
Napoleon Bonaparte crosses the Alps, 1800
Napoleon Crowns Himself Emperor of the French in 1804
Napoleon I and neoclassicism
NAPOLEON 1799-1815

• I. Introduction
• II. Napoleon in Power
  – A. The Consulate (1799-1804)
    • 1. The Concordat of 1801
    • 2. 1802 Plebiscite--Napoleon becomes First Consul
    • 3. 1804 Napoleon crowns himself Emperor of the French
  – B. Emperor Napoleon I (1804-1814)
    • 1. Domestic Policies--mix of old and new
    • 2. Foreign Policy--WAR!
    • 3. Military Decline and Fall of Napoleon (1812-1815)
Western Germany on the eve of the Napoleonic Invasion
The Napoleonic Empire in 1812
Tschaikowsky’s 1812 Overture

• 1. Napoleon’s Theme

• 2. Scattering of the Russian Scouts

• 3. Russian army rallies to the front

• 4. The Battle: French theme vs. Russian theme--victory uncertain

• 5. Russian theme emerges triumphant
Napoleon’s retreat from Russia, Winter 1812-1813
The Battle of Waterloo, 1815